Subject: Extramural Funding Update: White House memo rescinded
Date: Wednesday, January 29, 2025 9:25:00 AM

Aloha,

The White House's Office of Management and Budget (OMB) has rescinded the memorandum issued on January 27, 2025 that directed federal agencies to temporarily pause grants, loans and other financial assistance programs. As a result, federal funding in these areas is expected to resume or continue, at this time.

This remains a rapidly evolving situation, and the university is closely monitoring developments. Updates will continue to be provided as needed.

Mahalo for your patience and support.

Sincerely,

Vassilis L. Syrmos

Vice President for Research and Innovation
